SBDC and EMAP Overview

The Pennsylvania Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs) work with small firms to help them compete and grow in today's highly competitive global economy. Combining the expertise of a professional staff with the resources of the state's best colleges and universities, the SBDCs provide high-quality business management consulting, information, and educational programs that build small firms' capacities to compete in domestic and international markets.

Sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through the Department of Community and Economic Development.
